AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE

J. L. Swan Excommunicated at the First Presbyterian.

HAD MADE SERIOUS CHARGES

A Letter in Which He Reflected Upon a Leading Member of the Session—Mr. Swan's Statement—The Matter Will Go to the Next Meeting of Presbytery.

A solemn scene was enacted at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Before it was ended, J. L. Swan, member of the board of education from the Third ward, was declared excommunicated as the sentence of the session.

The services had opened in the regular form, the church being crowded to the doors. By far the greater number of those there assembled had no intimation that anything unusual was about to take place, but a sufficient number had heard such intimation of the matter as to send a spirit of unrest throughout the whole congregation.

The last strains of Miss Everson's splendid solo had died away in the spacious auditorium when the Rev. Dr. Lee walked slowly to the pulpit, holding in his hand a small book. Without a moment's hesitation he began to read in a strong, clear voice, from the book of discipline. It was an impressive scene. Not a member of that large body moved.

As the reading proceeded the same stillness was noticeable. From the introduction the minister turned to a closely written manuscript. It was the sentence of the session, and detailed that Mr. Swan had made charges against several members of the session and the church. He was asked to retract, the doctor continued, and this he refused to do. The session then asked him to appear before them and prove what he had said. He came and demanded immediate action. The session, desiring to be lenient with him, gave him two additional days in which to prepare a statement. This he refused to do. The sentence excommunicating Mr. Swan followed, Doctor Lee citing the church discipline and portions of the scripture as authority. That was all, and the services continued as though nothing had happened. The matter was the subject of general conversation throughout the city yesterday.

The News Review is in possession of these charges, but as they have not been given to the public, and are even now the property of none but the session of the First Presbyterian church, it does not give them a place in its columns. Such publication might be termed libel by the law.

METHODIST CHURCH BLAZED.

The Fire Department Had Two Runs Yesterday.

For the fourth time in its history the First M. E. church at Fifth and Jackson street was on fire yesterday morning. The department was called about 6:30 to extinguish the flames at the cornice on the Jackson street side of the church. Chief Morley directed the use of Babcocks, which soon put the fire out. The cause of the fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. The sparks from this rolled down the alcove. The damage done will amount to about $50, covered by insurance.

A small chimney fire occurred yesterday afternoon at the residence of Richard Till, Third street. The department was called out and the flames extinguished with the small Babcocks. Mr. Till is thankful to the department and his neighbors for their prompt work.

ABUSED HIS CHILDREN.

Whipped Them and Made Them Stay Out All Night.

There was no end of indignation in the West End when it became known this morning that a well known resident had been abusing his children. He was drunk yesterday, and after whipping the youngsters, compelled them to leave the house. They were driven away when they returned, and later when they asked for admission, he again drove them away. They were compelled to remain from home all night. The matter will likely be reported to the humane society.

MOVING THE RIG.

Local Capital Will Soon Be Drilling Another Well.

The East Liverpool company, who have been spending time and money in the hope of finding oil near Darlington, will soon have the drill going in another well. Workmen are now engaged in moving the rig, and expect to complete the task not later than the middle of the week. The first well was started last November, and it was expected that a good flow of oil would be realized before the first of the year, but salt water ruined the prospects. They have determined to try it again.

MISS GLIDDEN IS DEAD

She Passed Away at San Antonio Last Saturday.

SHE WAS THE SCIENCE TEACHER

Of the High School, But Was Compelled to Give Up Her Position Because of the Disease Which Later Resulted in Death. The Remains Taken to Cleveland.

Miss Frances Maude Glidden, of Cleveland, died in San Antonio, Tex., last Saturday, after an illness of several months. Consumption was the cause.

This intelligence will be read with the deepest sorrow by many people in the city who knew Miss Glidden while she was here. She came last fall to take charge of the department of science in the high school, and was not only beloved by her students, but had the esteem of all who knew her. In December she became ill, and when she went to her home to spend the holiday season, she was informed by her family physician that her only hope lay in a warmer climate. Arrangements were made at once, and she went to San Antonio. Her condition during the past few weeks became such that her friends were alarmed, and her brother went to Texas for the purpose of taking her home. She was too ill to be moved, and Saturday the end came. Word was at once telegraphed to her father, John M. Glidden, at Cleveland, but no arrangements for the funeral have yet been made. The remains will likely be taken to Cleveland for burial.

Miss Glidden was a young lady of remarkable attainments. A graduate of Oberlin college she was possessed of a brilliancy which placed her far above the average. Her gentle disposition made her friends everywhere, and they were not the friends of a day. Although a resident of this city but a short time, she so endeared herself to her pupils and her other friends that they will be deeply grieved to hear of the sad happening.

ANOTHER MEETING.

The Mormons Gave Their Views to a Small Audience.

Elders Barlow and Larson, of the Mormon church, held another meeting last evening at the residence of Thomas Davidson. About 22 persons were present. The men talked an hour and a half on the subject of "The Church Organization and Its Gifts and Blessings." There was not much interest manifested by those present. The men expect to commence their street talk some time this week, the date being as yet unsettled. The elders stated today if they could get 20 believers in their faith they would organize a branch in this city.

MRS. GROCOTT DEAD.

Her Husband Arrived Just Before She Died.

Mrs. Grocott, aged 46 years, died at the Woman's Christian Temperance union home yesterday. She had been ill about two weeks suffering from a tumor in the stomach. She is survived by her husband and a son, who own a large orange grove in Florida. Mr. Grocott arrived in the city yesterday morning, two hours before the death of his wife. The funeral takes place tomorrow morning at 8:30 from the Catholic church.

THE RIG BURNED.

A Disastrous Fire at the Davis Well Yesterday.

The rig owned by Williams & Webb at their new gas well on the John Davis farm, near Williamsport, caught fire yesterday morning and burned to the ground. The tools are also lost. The loss will amount to between $500 and $600, with no insurance. The well was down to a depth of 300 feet, and workmen Saturday afternoon finished casing it.

Big Shipments of Coal.

River 14 feet, and falling. Passed up, Keystone State, Kenawha, Ben Har, B. D. Wood and Tom Reese. The Reese had in tow the steamer Sallie, which had a broken shaft. Down, Rescue, Mariner, Raymond, Horner, Joseph Cook, Ida Budd, B. C. Wood, Jim Brown. It is estimated that over 600,000 bushels of coal passed this port since Saturday noon.

Came From Columbus.

Doctor Joe Laughlin, of Columbus, has come to the city and will take charge of Doctor Frank Laughlin's office and practice until that gentleman returns from Cleveland.

No Benefit This Year.

The stage hands at the Grand will not give a benefit this year. They have spent considerable time trying to book a first class attraction, but were unable to do so, and rather than run in a second rate show, have given up the benefit. "The Heart of Maryland" had the call, but it was impossible to secure it.

THE HOTEL SYNDICATE

Want to Buy the Blackmore Property, Sixth Street.

The hotel company, who secured an option on the Hotel Grand some time ago, have succeeded in getting a figure on the land owned by Mrs. Blackmore, at the corner of East Market and Sixth streets. The price quoted is $50,000. The same company a short time ago offered Mrs. Samuel Ridinger $22,000 cash for the lot at West Market and Sixth, but she refused to sell. There are two parties now after the Blackmore property. An option has been given parties on part of the lot. It has not yet expired.

Heard Father Kress.

Liverpool people to the number of 400 went to Wellsville last night to hear Father Kress speak upon "Salvation," at the church of the Immaculate Conception. The gentleman delivered an eloquent sermon. He left today for Lisbon, where he will hold services for a week in conjunction with Father Graham. Father Kress was born and reared in this city, and is among the foremost orators of this diocese.

Cut Open His Head.

Eddie Timmers, a resident of the West End, while working around one of the presses at the glass plant this morning, met with a painful, though not serious, accident by having a lever fall on his head and cutting it open. Medical aid was summoned, and the lad is now improving rapidly.

Her Jaw Out of Place.

Doctor Norris was called to Chester yesterday to attend a young lady whose jaw was out of place. When the doctor arrived at the home of the young lady everything was serene and beautiful. The young lady in some manner fixed her face, so that medical attention was unnecessary.

The Wellsville Road.

The Wellsville road where the slip occurred, is in an awful condition, and persons driving that way are compelled to use the track, the road having gone over the hill. They think it should be repaired at once, as the spot is decidedly dangerous.

John Powell Ill.

John Powell, pressman at the NEWS REVIEW, and well known as the organizer of the Federation of Labor, is confined to his home in Third street by a serious illness. He was seized Saturday night, and for a time his condition was critical.

Changing His Business.

William Bott will not travel with Sells Brothers circus this season as they will not use saxophones in their band. He has almost decided to start a bicycle livery in the city.

The Next President.

It is a little early to make predictions, but the politicians are all saying that Chal Stewart, the member from the Second ward, will be the next president of council.

Two Good Sermons.

Doctor Holmes preached two eloquent sermons yesterday at the First M. E. church. He will not preach here again until Easter Sunday, when special services will be held.

Good Stories.

Councilman Stewart and Eugene Bradshaw are fishing this afternoon. Chal stated in advance that he caught ten, while Bradshaw only managed to get eight.

Theatrical Passengers.

The early train east was 15 minutes late this morning, on account of the increased theatrical traffic which the Cleveland and Pittsburg railroad is now enjoying.

Not Much Business.

Merchants were complaining Saturday night that business was not as brisk as they had expected. It was little pay. The streets were crowded with people.

No Cases at City Hall.

The mayor's court was without a case this morning. The only boarder now in the city's keeping is Jim Sharp, who is the city janitor for 12½ days.

Mercer Is All Right.

A letter received from Winnie Mercer states that he has gone into active training, and is in first class shape.

Broke His Shoulder.

A horse belonging to John Wolf while being driven along the Lisbon road, yesterday, fell and fractured its shoulder.

Repairing Boilers.

The boilers of the ferryboat are being repaired today, preparatory to the inspection, which will take place April 2.

STORY OF THE PRINCE

A Prince of England Becomes a Methodist Parson.

DELIGHTFUL SERVICE OF SONG

"Grandfather's Clock" Will Tick Tomorrow Night, and You Have a Special Invitation to Listen to Its Music—Don't Fail to Hear the Evangelist.

Very impressive services were held in the morning. The ordinance of baptism was first observed, after which new members were taken into the church, fifteen persons uniting therewith. This was followed by communion, a very large number participating. The occasion was indeed a solemn one, the evangelist emphasizing this fact and earnestly urging his hearers to profit thereby, for time and for eternity.

P. S. A. Meeting.

The pleasant Sunday afternoon meeting was a gem. The instrumental concert, with rendition of choice selections, suitable for the Sabbath day, won very hearty commendation. Mrs. Charley Risinger pleased the audience with a vocal solo, while the P. S. A. quartet made rich melody. Miss Emma Maple sang a solo in splendid voice, and was followed by the evangelist in an address descriptive of the conversion of an English prince of the realm.

his acceptance of a position as a Methodist preacher, and his wonderful eloquence and power as a pulpit orator. There was one town in England which had taken a special dislike to the Methodists, and the visiting parsons had received very rough treatment from the inhabitants, some of them being ducked in the horse pond, some rotten-egged, and others abused in different ways, until it was difficult for the officials of the church to persuade a preacher to go to this special place. The prince was a splendid specimen of manhood, standing over six feet in height and built in proportion, while he was absolutely fearless in the performance of duty. When the question was asked, "Who will go to this town?" Prince Beckaleg cried out, in his deep bass voice: "Send me. I will go." Dressed as a miller, he attended a meeting presided over by the rector of the town. He formed the acquaintance of the rector, was invited to dine with him, accepted the invitation, and so won upon his host that he was taken into his confidence and told all about the Methodist parson who was expected to preach, and of the reception the lads had prepared for him. The prince entered into the spirit of the affair, accompanied the rector to a point where they could overlook the assembled multitude, noted the failure of the Methodist parson to be on hand, and then the rector persuaded the seeming miller to address the crowd, which he did in such an eloquent, impressive manner as to win all hearts and received an invitation to talk again on the following Sabbath, which he complied with and then made himself known as the parson, and was applauded to the echo for his fearless manhood and Christian courage, and the rector became his friend for life. He next visited Doncaster, where a number of clergymen were to make speeches, and the parson was invited to make the first speech, the mayor of the place thinking this the best method of disposing of the fellow. Prince Beckaleg charmed the great audience and won souls to Christ. No other speech was made, and the mayor was so delighted that he made provisions in his will for the erection of a church, and designating 500 seats in said church to be free forever to the people. Evangelist Naylor afterwards had the pleasure of preaching in this church. Prince Beckaleg won all hearts unto him because he was full of the Holy Ghost, and because the blessed Christ gave him full unction and power.

There was a packed audience present at the evening service, the evangelist delivering a powerful sermon from the text "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Don't forget the lecture in the Methodist Protestant church tomorrow night on "Grandfather's Clock." Admission free. Splendid music, vocal and instrumental. A silver offering will be taken.

Moved From Pittsburg.

Mr. C. Nease and wife are now residents of our city. Mr. Nease is an architect, and has been engaged in Pittsburg for the past two years. He bears the reputation of being very clever in his special work.

AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE

J. L. Swan Excommunicated at the First Presbyterian.

HAD MADE SERIOUS CHARGES

A Letter In Which He Reflected Upon a Leading Member of the Session—Mr.
Swan's Statement—The Matter Will Go to the Next Meeting of Presbytery.

A solemn scene was enacted at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. Before it was ended, J. L.
Swan, member of the board of education from the Third ward, was declared excommunicated as the sentence of the session.

The services had opened in the regular form, the church being crowded to the doors. By far the greater number of those there assembled had no intimation that anything unusual was about to take place, but a sufficient number had heard such intimation of the matter as to send a spirit of unrest throughout the whole congregation. The last strains of Miss Everson's splendid solo had died away in the spacious auditorium when the Rev. Dr.
Lee walked slowly to the pulpit, holding in his hand a small book. Without a moment's hesitation he began to read in a strong, clear voice, from the book of discipline. It was an impressive scene.
Not a member of that large body moved.
As the reading proceeded the same stillness was noticeable. From the introduction the minister turned to a closely written manuscript. It was the sentence of the session, and detailed that Mr. Swan had made charges against several members of the session and the church. He was asked to retract, the doctor continued, and this he refused to do. The session then asked him to appear before them and prove what he had said. He came and demanded immediate action. The session, desiring to be lenient with him, gave him two additional days in which to prepare a statement. This he refused to do. The sentence excommunicating Mr. Swan followed, Doctor Lee citing the church discipline and portions of the scripture as authority. That was all, and the services continued as though nothing had happened. The matter was the subject of general conversation throughout the city yesterday.

The News Review is in possession of these charges, but as they have not been given to the public, and are even now the property of none but the session of the First Presbyterian church, it does not give them a place in its columns.
Such publication might be termed libel
by the law.

"My case is in good hands," said Mr.
Swan, when interviewed by a representative of the News Review, "and will receive full consideration at the proper time. I have faith and confidence in the higher tribunal of the Presbyterian church—the church I love so well. I have not received fair or Christian-like treatment, and I shall demonstrate this statement to be a fact at the proper time. There is no law of the great Presbyterian church which will permit any one man to occupy the position of accused and moderator, and that is the position which my late pastor occupied in the farce which my persecutors term a trial. This is not an age of oppression, nor the time of the inquisition, when without trial an individual can be condemned. I only ask fair play. I bear no malice or hatred toward my persecutors. On the contrary, I pray earnestly that God may forgive them and awaken them to a full knowledge of the enormity of the crime they are attempting to commit against my family and myself. Of course I shall at once appeal my case to the presbytery of Steubenville, which convenes in the Second church, East End, April 19. The only offense alleged by session is my letter to them. I had no trial as to the truth or falsity of the statements contained therein. My object in writing the letter was simply to explain my reasons for not attending church, and for the withdrawal of my subscription.

"My forefathers have been life-long members of the Presbyterian church. I have three brothers who are now active ministers in the Presbyterian church, one of these brothers being a missionary in China. The fourth brother is a medical missionary, under the care of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, and is now stationed at Canton, China.
My father is a Presbyterian minister and has been in the harness for over 40 years. I have been a member of the Presbyterian church for over 20 years, and this is the first shadow of a charge which has ever been brought against me. My father's oldest brother is a Presbyterian minister. In fact our entire family belongs to the Presbyterian church, and I have full faith that the authorities connected with the Presbyterian church will see full justice done me. I love the church and shall continue to do so. My accusations against my late pastor have been made in good faith. I firmly believe that the charges I have made are the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

When I am convinced that they are untrue, and that I have done the accused injustice, then will I acknowledge my error and humbly beg his pardon, and not before."

resident had been abusing his children. He was drunk yesterday, and after whipping the youngsters, compelled them to leave the house. They were driven away when they returned, and later when they asked for admission, he again drove them away. They were compelled to remain from home all night. The matter will likely be reported to the humane society.

MOVING THE RIG.

Local Capital Will Soon Be Drilling Another Well.

The East Liverpool company, who have been spending time and money in the hope of finding oil near Darlington, will soon have the drill going in another well. Workmen are now engaged in moving the rig, and expect to complete the task not later than the middle of the week. The first well was started last November, and it was expected that a good flow of oil would be realized before the first of the year, but salt water ruined the prospects. They have determined to try it again.

MISS GLIDDEN IS DEAD

She Passed Away at San Antonio Last Saturday.

SHE WAS THE SCIENCE TEACHER

Of the High School, But Was Compelled to Give Up Her Position Because of the Disease Which Later Resulted In Death.
The Remains Taken to Cleveland.

Miss Frances Maude Glidden, of Cleveland, died in San Antonio, Tex., last Saturday, after an illness of several months. Consumption was the cause.

This intelligence will be read with the deepest sorrow by many people in the city who knew Miss Glidden while she was here. She came last fall to take charge of the department of science in the high school, and was not only beloved by her students, but had the esteem of all who knew her. In December she became ill, and, when she went to her home to spend the holiday season, she was informed by her family physician that her only hope lay in a warmer climate. Arrangements were made at once, and she went to San Antonio.
Her condition during the past few weeks became such that her friends were alarmed, and her brother went to Texas for the purpose of taking her home. She was too ill to be moved, and Saturday the end came. Word was at once telegraphed to her father, John M. Glidden, at Cleveland, but no arrangements for the funeral have yet been made. The remains will likely be taken to Cleveland for burial.

Miss Glidden was a young lady of remarkable attainments. A graduate of Oberlin college she was possessed of a brilliance which placed her far above the average. Her gentle disposition made her friends everywhere, and they were not the friends of a day. Although a resident of this city but a short time, she so endeared herself to her pupils and her other friends that they will be deeply grieved to hear of the sad happening.

ANOTHER MEETING.

The Mormons Gave Their Views to a Small Audience.

Elders Barlow and Larson, of the Mormon church, held another meeting last evening at the residence of Thomas Davidson. About 22 persons were present. The men talked an hour and a half on the subject of "The Church Organization and Its Gifts and Blessings." There was not much interest manifested by those present. The men expect to commence their street talk some time this week, the date being as yet unsettled. The elders stated today if they could get 20 believers in their faith they would organize a branch in this city.

MRS. GROCOTT DEAD.

Her Husband Arrived Just Before She Died.

Mrs. Grocott, aged 46 years, died at the Woman's Christian Temperance union home yesterday. She had been ill about two weeks suffering from a tumor in the stomach. She is survived by her husband and a son, who own a large orange grove in Florida. Mr. Grocott arrived in the city yesterday morning, two hours before the death of his wife.
The funeral takes place tomorrow morning at 8:30 from the Catholic church.

THE RIG BURNED.

A Dismal Fire at the Davis Well Yesterday.

The rig owned by Williams & Webb
at their new gas well on the John Davis farm, near Williamsport, caught fire yesterday morning and burned to the ground. The tools are also lost. The loss will amount to between $800 and $900, with no insurance. The well was down to a depth of 300 feet, and workmen Saturday afternoon finished casing it.

Big Shipments of Coal.

River 14 feet, and falling. Passed up, Keystone State, Kenawha, Ben Hur, B.
D. Wood and Tom Reese. The Reese had in tow the steamer Sallie, which had a broken shaft. Down, Rescue, Mariner, Raymond, Horner, Joseph Cook, Ida Budd, B. C. Wood, Jim
Brown. It is estimated that over 600, 000 bushels of coal passed this port since Saturday noon.

Came From Columbus.

Doctor Joe Laughlin, of Columbus, has come to the city and will take charge of Doctor Frank Laughlin's office and practice until that gentleman returns from Cleveland.

No Benefit This Year.

The stage hands at the Grand will not give a benefit this year. They have spent considerable time trying to book a first class attraction, but were unable to do so, and rather than run in a second rate show, have given up the benefit.

"The Heart of Maryland" had the call,
but it was impossible to secure it.

THE HOTEL SYNDICATE

Want to Buy the Blackmore Property, Sixth Street.

The hotel company, who secured an option on the Hotel Grand some time ago, have succeeded in getting a figure on the land owned by Mrs. Blackmore, at the corner of East Market and Sixth streets. The price quoted is $50,000.
The same company a short time ago offered Mrs. Samuel Ridinger $22,000 cash for the lot at West Market and Sixth, but she refused to sell. There are two parties now after the Blackmore property. An option has been given parties on part of the lot. It has not yet expired.

Heard Father Kress.

Liverpool people to the number of 400 went to Wellsville last night to hear Father Kress speak upon "Salvation," at the church of the Immaculate Conception. The gentleman delivered an eloquent sermon. He left today for Lisbon, where he will hold services for a week in conjunction with Father Graham. Father Kress was born and reared in this city, and is among the foremost orators of this diocese.

Cut Open His Head.

Eddie Timmers, a resident of the West End, while working around one of the presses at the glass plant this morning, met with a painful, though not serious, accident by having a lever fall on his head and cutting it open.
Medical aid was summoned, and the lad is now improving rapidly.

Her Jaw Out of Place.

Doctor Timmers was called to Chester yesterday to attend a young lady whose jaw was out of place. When the doctor arrived at the home of the young lady everything was serene and beautiful.
The young lady in some manner fixed her face, so that medical attention was unnecessary.

The Wellsville Road.

The Wellsville road where the slip occurred, is in an awful condition, and persons driving that way are compelled to use the track, the road having gone over the hill. They think it should be repaired at once, as the spot is decidedly dangerous.

John Powell Ill.

John Powell, pressman at the News Review, and well known as the organizer of the Federation of Labor, is confined to his home in Third street by a serious illness. He was seized Saturday night, and for a time his condition was critical.

Changing His Business.

William Bott will not travel with Sells Brothers circus this season as they will not use saxophones in their band. He has almost decided to start a bicycle livery in the city.

The Next President.

It is a little early to make predictions, but the politicians are all saying that Chal Stewart, the member from the Second ward, will be the next president of council.

Two Good Sermons.

Doctor Holmes preached two eloquent sermons yesterday at the First M. E. church. He will not preach here again until Easter Sunday, when special services will be held.

Good Stories.

Councilman Stewart and Eugene
Bradshaw are fishing this afternoon.
Chal stated in advance that he caught ten, while Bradshaw only managed to get eight.

Theatrical Passengers.

The early train east was 15 minutes late this morning, on account of the increased theatrical traffic which the Cleveland and Pittsburgh railroad is now enjoying.

Not Much Business.

Merchants were complaining Saturday night that business was not as brisk as they had expected. It was little pay.
The streets were crowded with people.

No Cases at City Hall.

The mayor's court was without a case this morning. The only boarder now in the city's keeping is Jim Sharp, who is the city janitor for 12½ days.

Mercer Is All Right.

A letter received from Winnie Mercer states that he has gone into active training, and is in first class shape.

Broke His Shoulder.

A horse belonging to John Wolf while being driven along the Lisbon road, yesterday, fell and fractured its shoulder.

STORY OF THE PRINCE

A Prince of England Becomes a Methodist Parson.

DELIGHTFUL SERVICE OF SONG

"Grandfather's Clock" Will Tick Tomorrow Night, and You Have a Special Invitation to Listen to Its Music—Don't Fail to Hear the Evangelist.

Very impressive services were held in the morning. The ordinance of baptism was first observed, after which new members were taken into the church, fifteen persons uniting therewith. This was followed by communion, a very large number participating. The occasion was indeed a solemn one, the evangelist emphasizing this fact and earnestly urging his hearers to profit thereby, for time and for eternity.

P. S. A. Meeting.

The pleasant Sunday afternoon meeting was a gem. The instrumental concert, with rendition of choice selections, suitable for the Sabbath day, won very high commendation. Mrs. Charley Risinger pleased the audience with a vocal solo, while the P. S. A. quartet made rich melody. Miss Emma Maple sang a solo in splendid voice, and was followed by the evangelist in an address descriptive of the conversion of an English prince of the realm, his acceptance of a position as a Methodist preacher, and his wonderful eloquence and power as a pulpit orator. There was one town in England which had taken a special dislike to the Methodists, and the visiting parsons had received very rough treatment from the inhabitants, some of them being ducked in the horse pond, some rotten-egged, and others abused in different ways, until it was difficult for the officials of the church to persuade a preacher to go to this special place. The prince was a splendid specimen of manhood, standing over six feet in height and built in proportion, while he was absolutely fearless in the performance of duty.
When the question was asked, "Who will go to this town?" Prince Beckaleg cried out, in his deep bass voice: "Send me. I will go." Dressed as a miller, he attended a meeting presided over by the rector of the town. He formed the acquaintance of the rector, was invited to dine with him, accepted the invitation, and so won upon his host that he was taken into his confidence and told all about the Methodist parson who was expected to preach, and of the reception the lady had prepared for him.
The prince entered into the spirit of the affair, accompanied the rector to a point where they could overlook the assembled multitude, noted the failure of the Methodist parson to be on hand, and then the rector persuaded the seeming miller to address the crowd, which he did in such an eloquent, impressive manner as to win all hearts and received an invitation to talk again on the following Sabbath, which he complied with and then made himself known as the parson, and was applauded to the echo for his fearless manhood and Christian courage, and the rector became his friend for life. He next visited Doncaster, where a number of clergymen were to make speeches, and the parson was invited to make the first speech, the mayor of the place thinking this the best method of disposing of the fellow.
Prince Beckaleg charmed the great audience and won souls to Christ. No other speech was made, and the mayor was so delighted that he made provisions in his will for the erection of a church, and designating 500 seats in said church
to be free forever to the people.
Evangelist Naylor afterwards had the pleasure of preaching in this church.
Prince Beckaleg won all hearts unto him because he was full of the Holy Ghost, and because the blessed Christ gave him full unction and power.

There was a packed audience present at the evening service, the evangelist delivering a powerful sermon from the text "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Don't forget the lecture in the Methodist Protestant church tomorrow night on "Grandfather's Clock." Admission free. Splendid music, vocal and instrumental. A silver offering will be taken.

Moved From Pittsburgh.

Mr. C. Nease and wife are now residents of our city. Mr. Nease is an architect, and has been engaged in Pittsburg for the past two years. He bears the reputation of being very clever in his special work.

Repairing Boilers.

The boilers of the ferryboat are being repaired today, preparatory to the inspection, which will take place April 2.

THE DEMAGOGUES HOWL.

"Very few of the labor delegations that marched through the streets of Canton during the last campaign have escaped getting a cut in their wages

since that happy time," says the Canton

News Democrat. Now, so far as the pottery are concerned, that statement is wrong. East Liverpool's men marched proudly through the streets of Canton, and cheered the statesman upon whom they depended for emancipation from the evils of hard times. Their wages have not been reduced, that had already been done, and done because the party which the News Democrat upholds compelled it. Moreover, the pottery have not been out of work since they visited in Canton. On the other hand the prospect and later the election of President

McKinley made much more work than this place had known when Democracy was at the height of its glory.

BOUGHT A COAL FIELD.

An English Syndicate Buys Out Several

Ohio Coal Companies.

JACKSON, O., March 29.—Papers have

been signed and delivered transferring

the entire Jackson county coal field to

the Kruger Syndicate of London, Limited, in consideration of $4,000,000. The following companies are in the consolidation and transfer:

Superior Coal company, the Wellston

Coal company, the Elhart Coal company, the Eliza Coal company, the Tom

Borwin Coal company, the Alma Coal company, the Tom Corwin Mining com-

tral Coal company.

Faith Cure Is Legal.

AKRON, O., March 29.—In the case of

Eugene Eastman, who was fined $25

and costs for practicing osteopathy

without a license by Mayor Harper,

Common Pleas Judge J. A. Kohler declared that the practice of osteopathy

was perfectly legal. The judge held

that part of the law prohibiting the

treatment of a case by drugs, medicines

or other things was not broad enough

to cover massage, faith cure, etc.

Drowned In the Darkness.

ZANESVILLE, O., March 29.—A man

supposed to be Edward Wells, a coal

miner, fell off the Baltimore and Ohio

railroad bridge into the Muskingum

river. His cries attracted a policeman, but in the darkness it was impossible to aid him. The river is high and the chances are against recovering the body,

although search is being made.

New Steamer Launched.

CLEVELAND, March 29.—The launching of the steel schooner Sidney G.

Thomas of the Rockefeller fleet took

place. Miss Belle Barrett christened

the boat. The Sidney G. Thomas is 278

feet in length, 26 feet depth of hold and 44 foot beam. She is schooner rigged with three masts. She will go into service May 1 as an ore carrier.

A Spiritualist Warned by Whitecaps.

WEST UNION, O., March 29.—James

Brittingham, an enthusiast on spiri-

tualism, received an anonymous letter

warning him that unless he ceased talking on the subject he would be treated

to a coat of tar and feathers.

FIFTY FAMILIES HOMELESS.

A Large Fire Destroys Many Homes and Causes Great Loss.

NORFOLK, Va., March 29.—A fire that

burned for six hours occurred at Portsmouth, making 50 families homeless

and causing $100,000 damage. The fire originated in Whitehursts Hall, on the corner of Green and Glasgow streets,

and burned the block to London street.

A high north wind swept the flames

across London street, and half a dozen

small residences on the southside of

that thoroughfare were destroyed. Huge brands were blown across the city to the

southward and the steeple of the Catholic church, three blocks away, caught fire. In less than half an hour the edifice was but ruins. The flames spread from the church to a row of residences

on High street, and while they were

burning the flying sparks caused another

blaze in Newton, about a mile away.

Assistance was rendered from Norfolk, and while the fire was at its height

the militia was called out to protect and aid the firemen. The occupants of

nearly all the houses destroyed lost

their household effects. The Catholic church was erected at a cost of $60,000,

and the total loss on all property destroyed will reach over $100,000.

Several firemen and a number of

spectators were more or less injured by falling timbers and flying embers.

A CORNER IN ONIONS.

A Kansas City Man Has Contracted for

27,000 Barrels.

KANSAS CITY, March 29.—James Mc-

Kinney, a wholesale produce and commission merchant, has apparently succeeded in cornering the onion market.

He has contracted for 27,000 barrels of

fancy, kiln dried stock that will keep

for months, and has stored them awaiting advance in price. Many whole-salers needing immediate orders have been compelled to pay $3.50 a barrel for

the same stock which previous to the present scarcity could have been bought

for $1.75 and $2.25.

Local dealers have many orders from

New York, Boston, Philadelphia and

other cities to be filled, but the receipts

have been so light here outside of those

to McKinney that no shipping orders

could be filled, it being almost an impossibility to supply the local demand.

Secretary Sherman Ill.

is not regarded as serious and the secretary is expected soon to be out again.

A FEW MORE DAYS.

The Tariff Debate in the House

to End Soon.

NIGHT SESSIONS MAY BE HELD.

Slow Progress Made on the Reading of

the Bill—Democrats to Fight the Steel

and Sugar Schedules—Will Adjourn For

a Few Days After Its Passage.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Three more days will see the end of the struggle over the Dingley tariff bill in the house. The bill will be open for amendment until 1 o'clock on Wednesday,

when the debate will close with a two

hour display of oratory. The voting will begin at 2 o'clock on that day. So far as known there will be no break in

the Republican ranks, but at least four

of the Democrats will brave the party

whip and cast their votes for the bill,

three from Louisiana and one from

Texas. There is also a probability that one Populist and one silverite will vote

for this protective measure. Mr. Dingleley, who has engineered the bill through the eddies of debate with great skill, will devote his energies to pressing the consideration of the bill forward with the utmost expedition in order to complete it before the vote is taken. But the Democrats are pursuing a course

which has thus far rendered progress

extremely difficult. But 14 of the 162

pages of the bill were disposed of in the two days of last week. At this rate it would require 21 days for the house,

sitting seven hours a day, to complete

the consideration of the bill under the

five minute rule. If the present tactics

of the opposition are persisted in it is

not improbable that night sessions will be held today and tomorrow.

The policy of the Democrats thus far

has been to attack every item and make

BOUGHT A COAL FIELD.

An English Syndicate Buys Out Several

Ohio Coal Companies.

JACKSON, O., March 29.—Papers have

been signed and delivered transferring

the entire Jackson county coal field to

the Kruger Syndicate of London, Limited, in consideration of $4,000,000. The following companies are in the consoli-

dation and transfer:

Superior Coal company, the Wellston

ard Coal company, Northern Coal company, Buckeye Coal company and Central Coal company.

Faith Cure Is Legal.

AKRON, O., March 29.—In the case of

Eugene Eastman, who was fined $25

and costs for practicing osteopathy

without a license by Mayor Harper,

Common Pleas Judge J. A. Kohler de-

was perfectly legal. The judge held

that part of the law prohibiting the

treatment of a case by drugs, medicines

or other things was not broad enough

to cover massage, faith cure, etc.

Drowned In the Darkness.

ZANESVILLE, O., March 29.—A man

supposed to be Edward Wells, a coal

miner, fell off the Baltimore and Ohio

railroad bridge into the Muskingum

river. His cries attracted a policeman,

but in the darkness it was impossible to aid him. The river is high and the chances are against recovering the body,

although search is being made.

New Steamer Launched.

CLEVELAND, March 29.—The launch-

ing of the steel schooner Sidney G.

Thomas of the Rockefeller fleet took

place, Miss Belle Barrett christened

the boat. The Sidney G. Thomas is 278

feet in length, 26 feet depth of hold and 44 foot beam. She is schooner rigged with three masts. She will go into service May 1 as an ore carrier.

A Spiritualist Warned by Whitecaps.

WEST UNION, O., March 29.—James

Brittingham, an enthusiast on spiri-

warning him that unless he ceased talk-

ing on the subject he would be treated

to a coat of tar and feathers.

A Large Fire Destroys Many Homes and

Closes Great L. O. S.

NORFOLK, Va., March 29.—A fire that

burned for six hours occurred at Port-

smouth, making 50 families homeless

and causing $100,000 damage. The fire originated in Whitehurst Hall, on the corner of Green and Glasgow streets,

and burned the block to London street.

A high north wind swept the flames

across London street, and half a dozen

small residences on the southside of

that thoroughfare were destroyed. Huge

brands were blown across the city to the

southward and the steeple of the Catholic church, three blocks away, caught fire. In less than half an hour the edifice was but ruins. The flames spread

from the church to a row of residences

on High street, and while they were

burning the flying sparks caused another

blaze in Newton, about a mile away.

Assistance was rendered from Nor-

folk, and while the fire was at its height

the militia was called out to protect

and aid the firemen. The occupants of

their household effects. The Catholic church was erected at a cost of $60,000,

and the total loss on all property destroyed will reach over $100,000.

Several firemen and a number of

spectators were more or less injured by

falling timbers and flying embers.

A CORNER IN ONIONS.

A Kansas City Man Has Contracted for

27,000 Barrels.

KANSAS CITY, March 29.—James Mc-

Kinney, a wholesale produce and commission merchant, has apparently succeeded in cornering the onion market.

He has contracted for 27,000 barrels of

fancy, kiln-dried stock that will keep

for months, and has stored them awaiting an advance in price. Many whole-salers needing immediate orders have

been compelled to pay $3.50 a barrel for

the same stock which previous to the

present scarcity could have been bought

for $1.75 and $2.25.

Local dealers have many orders from

other cities to be filled, but the receipts

have been so light here outside of those

to McKinney that no shipping orders

could be filled, it being almost an im-

possibility to supply the local demand.

Secretary Sherman Ill.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Secretary of State Sherman is confined to his room with an attack of rheumatism. It is not regarded as serious and the secretary is expected soon to be out again.

A FEW MORE DAYS.

The Tariff Debate in the House

to End Soon.

NIGHT SESSIONS MAY BE HELD.

Slow Progress Made on the Reading of

the Bill—Democrats to Fight the Steel

and Sugar Schedules—Will Adjourn For

a Few Days After Its Passage.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Three more days will see the end of the struggle over the Dingley tariff bill in the house. The bill will be open for amendment until 1 o'clock on Wednesday,

when the debate will close with a two

hour display of oratory. The voting

will begin at 2 o'clock on that day. So far as known there will be no break in

the Republican ranks, but at least four

of the Democrats will brave the party

whip and cast their votes for the bill,

three from Louisiana and one from

Texas. There is also a probability that

one Populist and one silverite will vote

for this protective measure. Mr. Dingley, who has engineered the bill through the eddies of debate with great skill, will devote his energies to pressing the

consideration of the bill forward with

the utmost expedition in order to complete it before the vote is taken. But the Democrats are pursuing a course

which has thus far rendered progress

extremely difficult. But 14 of the 162

pages of the bill were disposed of in the

two days of last week. At this rate it would require 21 days for the house,

sitting seven hours a day, to complete

the consideration of the bill under the

five minute rule. If the present tactics

of the opposition are persisted in it is

not improbable that night sessions will

be held today and tomorrow.

The policy of the Democrats thus far

has been to attack every item and make it the text for general assaults on the bill. It is understood that they will make a particularly strong stand against the steel and sugar schedules. They do

WORKING FOR LIFE.

People in Mississippi Labor
Hard on the Levees.

MUCH ALARM AT VICKSBURG.

Orders For Sacks and Material Plentiful—The Situation Desperate at Many Points—Reports of Still Higher Water Coming.

MEMPHIS, March 29.—A special from Greenville, Miss., says the gauge reads 46.6, a rise of four-tenths within the past 24 hours.

The weather is warmer and partly cloudy. Every hour has been utilized by labor on the levees. No time is being lost while the weather remains good. Some may be praying, but all realize the fact that they must watch and work as well as pray. Nearly 1,000 men are at work upon the levees of ten miles covering Greenville front. An army of. An army of 500 new laborers fresh from the plantations have arrived here. The Greenville sawmills are at work, with full forces of men while cargoes are being loaded with lumber and sacks to be sent to weak points. The boats, Ethridge, Mitre Parker, Vidette, Mayflower, Ruth, Annie Laurie, Brown, Chico, Tourist and Greyhound are being used, now almost exclusively for transportation of men and material to be used in strengthening the levees. Every energy is now being used to prevent a crevasse with hopes of success. While the water is above the levees in some places, dirt, lumber and bags of sand have been used to elevate the embankments above the water level.

Everything is intact at present. The government boat Mississippi, with the Mississippi river commission aboard, stopped here, and in an interview Judge Taylor, a member of the commission from Indiana, said that of the 1,300 miles of levee, with this unprecedented flood, less than seven miles have given away under the terrible pressure, only one-half of one per cent of the system. He thinks it possible that other breaks will occur during the next few days, as he expects one more foot of water for this section. To be prepared for the rise yet to come is now the purpose of those in authority here. Several weak places reported south of Greenville last night are now under control. The Arkansas levees opposite Greenville are said to be in fair condition.

Governor A. J. McLaurin, who has been in the del. for several days, has left for Jackson, but said before leaving that his services were at the command of the people here. Lieutenant H. C. Newcomer, with headquarters at Memphis, in charge of the government work in the third district, is here and doing all in his power. The crisis is upon this section now, the situation is grave and the strain upon the levees and the people is severe.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 29.—The days have been one of increased anxiety for those depending upon and protected by the levees. Orders for sacks and other material have been plentiful. Major Willard, United States engineer, sent a boat out this afternoon to meet the demand for sacks and shovels that came from Greenville. The river at Vicksburg has risen five-tenths since last evening, and is now 18.6, six inches below the highest water since 1892.

The most that can be said is that the levees are being held on both sides of the river under circumstances a little short of desperate. President Maxwell of the Fifth Louisiana levee board urges planters to send labor and teams to the levees immediately.

MEMPHIS, March 29.—The flood situation around Memphis is unchanged. The river is slowly falling, the gauge registering 36.3 feet. Many of the refugees are returning to their abandoned homes in Arkansas, and altogether the outlook is more encouraging than at any time since the big flood set in.

WORST STILL TO COME.

The Rivers in the South Will Continue to Rise.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, has issued the following special bulletin:

The crest of the flood is still at Cairo, which shows a stationary gauge, reading 51.6 feet for the past four days. There is great danger yet to come from the flood in the region from Helena southward to New Orleans.

The river will continue to rise for at least ten days in the region from Helena southward to Vicksburg, and to rise during a longer period from Vicksburg southward.

If no break occurs before, levees will be subjected to the greatest strain about April 10 in Southern Arkansas, Western Mississippi and in Louisiana. Should the levees break the result will be one of the most disastrous floods ever known.

Weather conditions now indicate heavy rainfall in the middle and lower Mississippi valleys which will materially intensify the flood conditions. Those living in districts overflowed in former years should be on the safe side and transfer stock and movable property to places of known safety while there is yet time.

Held a Conference.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 29.—A large number of legislators and politicians who had spent Sunday at home have returned and the situation again became full of interest. Mr. Samuel J. Roberts, late chairman of the Republican campaign committee, arrived from Lexington, and was ushered into a conference with ex-Secretary of State S. M. Taylor of Ohio. The conference is supposed to have related to the dual subject of Hunter's election, if possible, and the substitution of a new candidate if Hunter does not win on the next ballot or two.

Killed at Railroad Crossing.

MAYFIELD, Ky., March 29.—Four miles south of here, near Frytown, John Hollifield and Will Eads, prominent citizens, were instantly killed at a railroad crossing by the southbound Illinois Central cannon ball. No. 205.

IT IS WISE ECONOMY

To buy where you can buy the cheapest: Another proof of wisdom is to buy the best your pocketbook will afford. Reliable merchandise wears the longest, and is in every way more satisfactory than flimsy makeshifts. This store stands ready to prove that what you buy here will be bought right, both in quality and price. If through any mistake it is not right, then we'll make it right. Your patronage is valuable to us.

Ready to Wear.

This refers to sundry lots of handsome skirts, all made by artists, fit finish and materials first-class, and all the dress making worry saved.

There are plenty of cheap skirts, but we think there are few, if any, as good values as the one we offer at $1.98, full width, good fit, made from figured mohair, large patterns, all lengths and waist sizes.

Our $5 offerings include checks, plain black mohairs, brown, and green novelties, all cheaper than you could possibly buy the materials and have them made. Better skirts in broadcase silks and satins at $8, $9.50, $10 and $12.50.

Muslin Underwear

Just received. You can see a few samples of it in our Sixth street window.

Corset covers, cambric, embroidery trimmed, well made, good fitting, all sizes, 25c. Other corset covers at 35c, 40c, 50c, 60c, 75c. Night robes excellent values, at 50c, 75c, $1, and up to $2.

Drawers 25c, 50c and 75c. Our white skirts are priced from 50c to $4 each. And the wonder is they can be made to sell so cheaply, quality, trimming and work considered. If interested in anything in the above line, you can't do better than buy from us.

New lace, in oriental, net top, heavy edge, for collar and sleeves, 30c, 40c and 50c per yard.

New ruchings in cream, black, buff, pink, blue, 25c a yard.

New Dress Goods.

One of the most important features of the business is the dress goods selling. Your mind is on this matter, and we think we can supply your need.

Another lot of goods received this week, about 20 pieces, at the popular prices, 40c and 50c. Not the goods generally offered at these figures, but strictly up-to-date, and just as stylish and serviceable as though you paid $1 for them.

Another good thing in our dress goods stock is figured mohairs, at $1 per yard. Larger patterns, and just the thing for skirt or suit. If you buy your dress before looking through our stock you have overlooked the best stock in town.

A Few Offerings.

New curtain poles, in antique, ash or oak, wooden brackets and pole trimmings, nice goods, 25c each.

Princess of Wales belts, one of the new novelties in this line, assorted colors and white, 50c each.

A boy's heavy ribbed bicycle hose, of fast black, good length, and answers the question so often asked, "Where can I get a boy's hose that will wear a week or more?" All sizes 25c per pair.

New lace, in oriental, net top, heavy edge, for collar and sleeves, 30c, 40c and 50c per yard.

New ruchings in cream, black, buff, pink, blue, 25c a yard.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

One week from today the city election will be held.

A new sign has been placed on the Diamond pottery.

John Goddard is suffering with a badly sprained wrist.

Will James moved today from the Croft farm to Wellsville.

Two or three fights occurred in the lower part of the city last night.

George West, traveler for the Vodrey company, left the city for a western trip this morning.

The pleasant weather induced a great many people to cross the river into West Virginia yesterday.

In the practice games at Roanoke of the Pittsburg team, Dick Padden is showing in excellent form.

A bet was made last Saturday night that the Democrats would elect at least one councilman next Monday.

Tramps were a scarce article in the city Saturday and last night. Not one put in an appearance at city hall.

Superintendent Sanor is somewhat better, and it is believed the gentleman will recover, although he is still very ill.

Rev. W. A. Halcott, of Groveland, N. Y., returned to that city after spending a few days with his cousin, Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

It is said that a lively chicken fight took place across the river yesterday afternoon. Some Wellsville birds were in the contest.

Ira Marlatt has been behaving himself very well at the penitentiary since his last outbreak, but he is as closely guarded as ever.

Walker Whiteside and his company went to Erie, Pa., yesterday. They will play the greater part of what is left of the season in the east.

Last evening the lights in the First M. E. church went out during the services. They were off for 15 minutes, during which time gas was used.

Orders continue plentiful at the potteries, and business is so brisk that the decorating departments of several plants are being operated at night.

The spring weather is having its effect upon farmers in this section, and work is much further advanced than is usually found at this season of the year.

Engine 606 made its first trip to Pittsburg last Saturday since being thoroughly overhauled at the Wellsville shops. It was attached to train 360.

James Riley, of Pittsburg, is in the city, called here by the illness of his little son, who is suffering with catarrhal fever at the home of William Bolton.

The idea of having a telephone line to Spring Grove campground is once more being broached. This time it is proposed to put in a 10 cent slot machine.

Several plain drunks were seen on the streets yesterday. Two of them wandered down Washington street, and only with difficulty maintained their equilibrium.

Because his daughter didn't go to school, Truant Officer Beardmore arrested John Perdine, last Saturday. He paid the costs, and was released by promising to send the child to school in the future.

The weather prophets predict that April will be a month of storms, very unusual storms for that season. Cold waves will sweep over the country, and there will be more than the usual amount of moisture.

At the last meeting of the Tippecanoe club, of Cleveland, John S. Goodwin, of this city, was elected to membership. Mr. Goodwin has many friends in the organization, and they fought hard for his election as vice president of the Republican league.

The Monaca correspondent of the New Brighton News says that "James Waite yesterday sold his fast horse, 'Wire Nail,' to a gentleman in East Liverpool, O., who will use him as a roadster. The horse is very much admired by all lovers of fine steppers."

Building in Chester is now at its height. J. C. Columbus is erecting a six room dwelling on a 34x22 lot. A. J. Snyder is building a two story four room dwelling on a lot 16x32 feet. A six room double residence is being put up on a lot 26x34 feet, by William Jackson.

"One of the silliest things I have heard for a long time was the statement that Frank Daniels' company crowded the hotels of this place," remarked a well-known resident. "If a little thing like that can crowd the hotels in a town of 16,000 people, we ought to take down our sign."

F. B. Hall, of Wheeling, and R. S. Donaldson, of Pittsburg, were in the city today. The gentlemen are connected with the telephone company, and said some improvements would be given this city over the system now in vogue. A new line will be placed on the bridge, and Chester will be connected with this city by telephone.

A GOOD FIT

is more desirable in a shoe than in any other article of wearing apparel. You have to think not only of appearance, but of your comfort as well. Our large and varied stock gives us the advantage of being able to fit you comfortably without sacrificing appearances over others.

Spring and Summer Shoes are here, but while this sort of weather is keeping up, you may be more interested in heavier footwear, such as you can wear without rubbers. The prices we are quoting for such shoes leaves no excuse for being without a pair, and even if you would want to use them only a short time now, they'll come in handy next fall, when they would cost you a good deal more money.

HERE THEY ARE.

Women's box calf lace shoes, needle and coin toes, double soles, heel and spring heel, choice from our $2.50, $3 and $4 shoes for $1.98.

Women's best dongola, welt sewed shoes, any style button or laced, our $4 shoes now $2.98.

Misses box calf lace shoes, double sole, coin toe only, a $2 shoe, reduced to $1.48.

Men's box calf and enamel shoes, full calfskin lined, warranted in every respect to be as good as can be made, now $3.90.

Men's calfskin, winter russet and enamel shoes, double soles, reduced from $3.50 to $2.50.

If you have girls to shoe, don't miss seeing the shoes we sell for $5.00 and $8.00, unless you don't mind paying 50c a pair more for them elsewhere.

WORKING FOR LIFE. People in Mississippi Labor Hard on the Levees. MUCH ALARM AT VICKSBURG.

Orders For Sacks and Material Plentiful—The Situation Desperate at Many Points—Reports of Still Higher Water Coming.

The weather is warmer and partly cloudy. Every hour has been utilized by labor on the levees. No time is being lost while the weather remains good. Some may be praying, but all realize the fact that they must watch and work as well as pray. Nearly 1,000 men are at work upon the levees of ten miles covering Greenville front. An army of. An army of 500 new laborers fresh from the plantations have arrived here. The Greenville sawmills are at work, with full forces of men while cargoes are being loaded with lumber and sacks to be sent to weak points. The boats Ethridge, Mitre Parker, Vidette, Mayflower, Ruth, Annie Laurie, Brown, Chicot, Tourist and Greyhound are being used now almost exclusively for transportation of men and material to be used in strengthening the levees. Every energy is now being used to prevent a crevasse with hopes of success. While the water is above the levees in some places, dirt, lumber and bags of sand have been used to elevate the embankments above the water level.

Everything is intact at present. The government boat Mississippi, with the Mississippi river commission aboard, stopped here, and in an interview Judge Taylor, a member of the commission from Indiana, said that of the 1,300 miles of levee, with this unprecedented flood, less than seven miles have given away under the terrible pressure, only one-half of one per cent of the system. He thinks it possible that other breaks will occur during the next few days, as he expects one more foot of water for this section. To be prepared for the rise yet to come is now the purpose of those in authority here. Several weak places reported south of Greenville last night are now under control. The Arkansas levees opposite Greenville are said to be in fair condition.

Governor A. J. McLaughlin, who has been in the delta for several days, has left for Jackson, but said before leaving that his services were at the command of the people here. Lieutenant H. C. Newcomer, with headquarters at Memphis, in charge of the government work in the third district, is here and doing all in his power. The crisis is upon this section now, the situation is grave and the strain upon the levees and the people is severe.

Vicksburg, Miss., March 29.—The day has been one of increased anxiety for those depending upon and protected by the levees. Orders for sacks and other material have been plentiful. Major Willard, United States engineer, sent a boat out this afternoon to meet the demand for sacks and shovels that came from Greenville. The river at Vicksburg has risen five-tenths since last evening, and is now 34.6, six inches below the highest water since 1892.

The most that can be said is that the levees are being held on both sides of the river under circumstances a little short of desperate. President Maxwell of the Fifth Louisiana levee board urges planters to send labor and teams to the levees immediately.

MEMPHIS, March 29.—The flood situation around Memphis is unchanged. The river is slowly falling, the gauge registering 36.3 feet. Many of the refugees are returning to their abandoned homes in Arkansas, and altogether the outlook is more encouraging than at any time since the big flood set in.

WORST STILL TO COME.

The Rivers in the South Will Continue to Rise.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Prof. Willis L. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, has issued the following special bulletin:

The crest of the flood is still at Cairo, which shows a stationary gauge, reading 51.6 feet for the past four days. There is great danger yet to come from the flood in the region from Helena southward to New Orleans.

The river will continue to rise for at least ten days in the region from Helena southward to Vicksburg, and to rise during a longer period from Vicksburg southward.

If no break occurs before, levees will be subjected to the greatest strain about April 10 in Southern Arkansas. Should the levees break the result will be one of the most disastrous floods ever known.

Weather conditions now indicate heavy rainfall in the middle and lower Mississippi valleys which will materially intensify the flood conditions.

Those living in districts overflowed in former years should be on the safe side and transfer stock and movable property to places of known safety while there is yet time.

Held a Conference. FRANKFORT, Ky., March 29.—A large number of legislators and politicians who had spent Sunday at home have returned and the situation again became full of interest. Mr. Samuel J. Roberts, late chairman of the Republican campaign committee, arrived from Lexington, and was hurried into a conference with ex-Secretary of State S. M. Taylor of Ohio. The conference is supposed to have related to the dual subject of Hunter's election, if possible, and the substitution of a new candidate if Hunter does not win on the next ballot or two.

Killed at Railroad Crossing. MAYFIELD, Ky., March 29.—Four miles south of here, near Pryorsburg, John Hollifield and Will Eads, prominent citizens, were instantly killed at a railroad crossing by the southbound Illinois Central cannon ball, No. 205.

IT IS WISE ECONOMY

To buy where you can buy the cheapest: Another proof of wisdom is to buy the best your pocketbook will afford. Reliable merchandise wears the longest, and is in every way more satisfactory than flimsy makeshifts. This store stands ready to prove that what you buy here will be bought right, both in quality and price. If through any mistake it is not right, then we'll make it right. Your patronage is valuable to us.

Ready to Wear. New Dress Goods.

This refers to sundry lots of handsome skirts, all made by artists, fit finish and materials first-class, and all the dress making worry saved.

There are plenty of cheap skirts, but we think there are few, if any, as good values as the one we offer at $1.98, full width, good fit, made from figured mohair, large patterns, all lengths and waist sizes.

Our $5 offerings include checks, plain black mohairs, brown, and green novelties, all cheaper than you could possibly buy the materials and have them made. Better skirts in brocade silks and satins at $8, $9.50, $10 and $12.50.

Muslin Underwear A Few Offerings.

Just received. You can see a few samples of it in our Sixth street window.

Corset covers, cambric, embroidery trimmed, well made, good fitting, all sizes, 25c. Other corset covers at 35c, 40c, 50c, 60c, 75c. Night robes excellent values, at 50c, 75c, $1, and up to $2.

Drawers 25c, 50c and 75c. Our white skirts are priced from 50c to $4 each. And the wonder is they can be made to sell so cheaply, quality, trimming and work considered. If interested in anything in the above line, you can't do better than buy from us.

New lace, in oriental, net top, heavy edge, for collar and sleeves, 30c, 40c and 50c per yard.

New ruchings in cream, black, buff, pink, blue, 25c a yard.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

One week from today the city election will be held.

A new sign has been placed on the Diamond pottery.

John Goddard is suffering with a badly sprained wrist.

Will James moved today from the Croft farm to Wellsville.

Two or three fights occurred in the lower part of the city last night.

George West, traveler for the Vodrey company, left the city for a western trip this morning.

The pleasant weather induced a great many people to cross the river into West Virginia yesterday.

In the practice games at Roanoke of the Pittsburg team, Dick Padden is showing in excellent form.

A bet was made last Saturday night that the Democrats would elect at least one councilman next Monday.

Tramps were a scarce article in the city Saturday and last night. Not one put in an appearance at city hall.

Superintendent Sanor is somewhat better, and it is believed the gentleman will recover, although he is still very ill.

Rev. W. A. Halcott, of Groveland, N. Y., returned to that city after spending a few days with his cousin, Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

It is said that a lively chicken fight took place across the river yesterday afternoon. Some Wellsville birds were in the contest.

Ira Marlatt has been behaving himself very well at the penitentiary since his last outbreak, but he is as closely guarded as ever.

Walker Whiteside and his company went to Erie, Pa., yesterday. They will play the greater part of what is left of the season in the east.

Last evening the lights in the First M. E. church went out during the services. They were off for 15 minutes, during which time gas was used.

Orders continue plentiful at the potteries, and business is so brisk that the decorating departments of several plants are being operated at night.

The spring weather is having its effect upon farmers in this section, and work is much farther advanced than is usually found at this season of the year.

Engine 606 made its first trip to Pittsburg last Saturday since being thoroughly overhauled at the Wellsville shops. It was attached to train 360.

James Riley, of Pittsburg, is in the city, called here by the illness of his little son, who is suffering with catarrhal fever at the home of William Bolton.

The idea of having a telephone line to Spring Grove campground is once more being broached. This time it is proposed to put in a 10 cent slot machine.

Several plain drunks were seen on the streets yesterday. Two of them wandered down Washington street, and only with difficulty maintained their equilibrium.

Because his daughter didn't go to school, Truant Officer Boardman arrested John Perdune, last Saturday. He paid the costs, and was released by promising to send the child to school in the future.

The weather prophets predict that April will be a month of storms, very unusual storms for that season. Cold waves will sweep over the country, and there will be more than the usual amount of moisture.

At the last meeting of the Tippecanoe club, of Cleveland, John S. Goodwin, of this city, was elected to membership. Mr. Goodwin has many friends in the organization, and they fought hard for his election as vice president of the Republican league.

The Monaca correspondent of the New Brighton News says that "James Waite yesterday sold his fast horse, 'Wire Nail,' to a gentleman in East Liverpool. O., who will use him as a roadster. The horse is very much admired by all lovers of fine steppers."

Building in Chester is now at its height. J. C. Columbus is erecting a six room dwelling on a 34x22 lot. A. J. Snyder is building a two story four room dwelling on a lot 16x32 feet. A six room double residence is being put on a lot 20x34 feet, by William Jackson.

"One of the silliest things I have heard for a long time was the statement that Frank Daniels' company crowded the hotels of this place," remarked a well-known resident. "If a little thing like that can crowd the hotels in a town of 16,000 people, we ought to take down our sign."

F. B. Hall, of Wheeling, and R. S. Donaldson, of Pittsburg, were in the city today. The gentlemen are connected with the telephone company, and said some improvements would be given this city over the system now in vogue. A new line will be placed on the bridge, and Chester will be connected with this city by telephone.

Apollo's Harp

Was the ancient forerunner of the piano. Its pleasant, plaintive strains, struck by the hand of the apt minstrel, made the finest music of which the Greeks knew anything about. Had they heard the tones of one of our magnificent upright pianos, their feelings would have been akin to those of a man who hears the music at St. Peter's, in Rome, during passion week, for the first time in his life. Our pianos are perfect in every way known to manufacturers.

TORRENS LAW TESTED

It Will Be Argued Before the
Supreme Court

THE MIDDLE OF NEXT MONTH

To Enforce the Statute Required the Expenditure of a Good Many Thousands of Dollars, and the Officials Decided to Give It an Impartial Hearing.

A matter of great interest throughout the entire state and one in which every county in Ohio has a part is the hearing before the supreme court on April 16 as to the constitutionality of the Torrens land law. Attorneys are now preparing their arguments in the matter, and it is to be given an elaborate presentation. The suit grows out of the refusal of the auditor and treasurer of state to purchase the necessary books to put the law in operation. This would have entailed an expense of between $30,000 and $40,000. The attorney general thereupon brought mandamus proceedings to compel them to buy the books and distribute among the counties of the state. The refusal of the auditor and treasurer was not because of any antipathy to the law, but simply a desire to settle the question of constitutionality at the start and do away with the possibility of future litigation. There is much, however, depending upon the outcome, and this is shown by the interest county officials are manifesting. If the law is held to be constitutional it will immediately be put into effect and adopted by the counties. This will greatly simplify the work of land transfers, and do away with the endless confusion attendant upon the present system. If held unconstitutional no change will be made. The best of legal talent has been obtained. R. A. Harrison, and ex-Attorney General Richards will represent the auditor and treasurer. Attorney General Monnett will represent the state. It is proposed to give the matter a fair test before the court.

HE FILED ANSWER

But Failed to Tell Just Why He Left Home.

LISBON, March 29.—(Special.)—Edgar Haviland against whom alimony proceedings were instituted last week by Hannah S. Haviland, his wife of a few weeks, filed his answer to the court. The charge of having deserted her within a short time after marriage is admitted, although it was not without reasons which are well known to both of them. Because of these reasons Haviland took up his residence in Raisen, Lenawee county, Mich., and does not ever again expect to live with her. The children he left with her he made provision for, but the wife has considerable property.

At the time of their marriage she had money he never touched. The property she asks, he disposed of several weeks before she began action, for the purpose of paying debts. He wants the suit dismissed.

William Fuels, a Butler township farmer, assigned Saturday to John E. Rogers, of Salem. Assets and liabilities are unknown.

GET YOUR TICKETS.

Don't Fail to Secure Reserved Seats at Once.

The college boys will be greeted by an immense audience at the Grand on next Friday night, April 2, as tickets are going like wild fire. Don't delay for a moment if you desire choice seats, which you can now secure at Reed's drug store. The members of the Glee, Mandolin, Guitar and Banjo club are connected with the famous Washington and Jefferson college, of Washington, Pa., and they have won universal commendation whenever and wherever they have appeared. Mr. Valentine Aht bears the reputation of being the finest mandolin player living, while R. J. McDowell, tenor, possesses a wonderfully sweet and highly cultivated voice. The entertainment will be a charming one, and you should not miss it.

Some of the Sick.

Joseph Kinney, who has been seriously ill, was out yesterday for the first time in several months. It will be remembered Mr. Kinney went west for his health, but returned last fall.

Tom Manton is again able to be out after a serious illness.

Painted the Lockers.

The quarters of the Young Men's Christian association are assuming a neat and cheerful appearance. Fresh paint has worked wonders, and Director Morris was adding to the effect today by painting the lockers.

Still a Nuisance.

The globe on the electric light at the foot of Broadway was broken last night by some small boy. As spring approaches Superintendent McKeehan finds this nuisance becoming more marked.

As an impersonator, Miss Shontz has hardly an equal, and her audiences are always aroused to a high pitch of enthusiasm and delight. At the United Presbyterian church on Tuesday night.

WILL MAKE A GREAT EFFORT.

The Republican Central Committee Are Thoroughly Organized.

The Republican central committee met at Charles McGregor's office Saturday evening, and a full attendance was present. The committee paid all debts, and had $16 in the treasury. They appointed E. C. Taylor to procure additional funds to be used in carrying on the city campaign. They also appointed an executive committee of A. G. McKenzie, Sherd Minor and W. L. Fogo. The next meeting will be on next Wednesday evening. The committee have already inaugurated a lively campaign, and it is expected to be just a little livelier than they have ever had before, at least a very prominent Republican gives out the statement that they will make a harder fight than ever, and expect to elect the whole ticket.

WILL 'O THE WISP.

The Ohio River on Fire Near Walker's Station.

Some years ago N. U. Walker had a hole drilled in the earth on his property a short distance above the works. Gas was struck, but not in very large quantities, but what there was of it was used until recently. The hole was drilled between high and low water marks, and now every time the river rises and covers the hole the gas escapes to the surface of the water, causing bubbles. The water covers the hole now, and some time yesterday a boatman held a flame to the surface of the water and the gas ignited. It seems now the waters are on fire. It is an interesting spectacle.

FIFTY AND COSTS

Is What Mayor Jones Said and McCarty Will Pay It.

Saturday morning Mayor Jones had a case before him that was not very well taken by the saloonkeepers. Miles McCarty, who keeps a saloon at Eighteenth and Broadway, was arraigned for furnishing liquor to a minor. The trial was called in the morning, and McCarty was convicted. Mayor Jones said $50, and McCarty had to pay it.

A Pleasant Evening.

There was an exceedingly pleasant time had at the home of Harvey Whitaker on Saturday night last. A large number of guests were on hand. Mr. J. L. Swan, of East Liverpool, was on hand with his photograph, and the selections given were very warmly commended. This invention of Wizard Edison is truly a wonderful one.

The News of Wellsville.

Mrs. Shontz will give an eloquent entertainment at city hall Thursday and Friday nights under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance union. The admission will be free. Mrs. Shontz comes very highly recommended, and deserves the patronage of all.

Found Some Harness.

J. P. Hickey, Saturday morning, found a set of harness lying in the roadway between Sixth street and the Jethro trestle. They were enclosed in a sack, and he thinks they were stolen, the thief dropping them in making his escape. The owner can have same by appearing and proving property.

Revised a Constitution.

The committee appointed to revise the constitution of Trades council have completed their work, and will make a report at the next meeting.

Miss Brookes Is Better.

Miss H. M. Brookes, who is suffering at her home from an attack of malaria, was much worse last night. She is somewhat improved today.

Board of Health Will Meet.

The board of health will meet this evening at 7 o'clock, in the mayor's office. The question of sewers will be discussed.

NAMED NO CANDIDATES

The Prohibitionists Left It to a Committee.

REORGANIZATION IS IN SIGHT

Plans Arranged By Which the Names of Members of the Party in Every Township Will Soon Be Known—They Will Be Provided With Literature.

The Prohibitionists failed to nominate a ticket at their meeting Saturday afternoon.

When the report of the News Review closed, Chairman Swan stated the next business would be to reorganize the county executive committee and to nominate a ticket. C. F. Bough objected to this on the grounds that there were not enough people present to do the important work, and on motion the convention adjourned to meet next Thursday evening at the residence of W. A. Weaver. J. C. McClain thought it would be a wise plan to appoint a committee of three to suggest names for the ticket and executive board and to report at the next meeting. C. F. Bough, J. M. Aten and S. J. Faulk were appointed by the chair.

J. L. Swan thought there should be some plan to get the names of the Prohibitionists in each township, in order that the committee could send them some of the literature on hand. The old list they had was no good, he explained, and a gentleman from Madison began telling how many Prohibitionists they had in his township. Mr. Faulk called attention to the fact that there was a delegate to be chosen to the senatorial convention. This was laid over and a collection amounting to $1.12 was taken. Mr. Swan explained that he would have his photograph at the next meeting, and the convention adjourned for the second time.

A Clever Rascal.
While a well to do Parisian was returning recently by train from Harte, during the first hour his only fellow passenger in the compartment was a young man who made himself very agreeable. Then others got in, and talk was general. Finally the Parisian dropped asleep. Presently the young man, turning to the other passengers, with a wink toward the sleeping man, said in an undertone, "I'll play a good joke on my uncle." And he unfastened the strap by which a small traveling bag was slung over the shoulder of the sleeper. "I'll change into the next compartment at the first stop, and my uncle will wake up and think he has been robbed. It will be fun to see his face, and I can watch through the little glass in the partition. Don't give it away." The others grinned appreciatively, and the young man presently slipped out with the bag.

Soon after the owner of the bag woke up. He missed his pouch from the strap and jumped up in great excitement, exclaiming, "I've been robbed!" The response of his fellow passengers was a roar of laughter. This added anger to the victim's excitement, and he stormed furiously. Finally one of the passengers assured the angry man that his bag was all right; his nephew had it in the next compartment. "My nephew!" shouted the bewildered man. "I haven't any nephew. I never had a nephew. I don't know anything about any nephew." Then it was the turn of the other passengers to be dumfounded. But the thief got away, and there were several thousand francs in the bag.—Paris Letter.

Nourishing Gruels.

Nourishing gruels are always in demand for delicate persons as well as invalids. Those most called for are of Indian meal or oatmeal. For oatmeal gruel put into a pan over the fire a quart of boiling water, add to it 2 tablespoonfuls of oatmeal by sifting it in slowly between the fingers, stirring all the while. When well mixed cover the saucepan and place it at the back of the fire, where it will simmer for two hours. Season with salt enough to make it palatable and sweeten it if desired. Strain it through a medium fine sieve. To a small teacup two-thirds full of this hot gruel add a teaspoonful of cream when serving it to an invalid. Indian meal gruel is made by mixing 2 level tablespoonfuls of meal with half a spoonful of flour, stirring into the dry ingredients half a cup of cold water before mixing them with a quart of boiling water. Let this mixture cook slowly at the back of the fire two hours, stirring it occasionally to prevent its sticking to the bottom of the pan, season generously with salt, a very little sugar and a suspicion of nutmeg. This gruel should also be served with cream, like the oatmeal gruel.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Two of Tait's Stories.

The late archbishop of Canterbury had many good stories to tell. Two are recalled by his private secretary, Mandeville B. Phillips, in some personal reminiscences, which he contributes to the London Sunday Magazine. One concerned Archbishop Tait's coachman, who was a very original character. One day a clergyman who called at the palace asked him whether he had still as much to do as ever. The answer was sublime. "There's always a goodish bit doing, sir, but it's been a trifle easier since we took young Mr. Parry into the business." The Right Rev. Edward Parry had recently been appointed bishop suffragan of Dover.

Another of the archbishop's stories, also of a coachman, will be new to many. A gentleman living in the neighborhood of Addington, finding that the stablemen were not in the habit of attending church, spoke to his coachman about it. "They ought to go," he said. "That's just what I say myself," was the rejoinder. "I say to them: 'Look at me. I go. And what harm does it do me?'"

An Encomium Cheaply Won.

"Boss," said the man, "give me 2 cents."

The man addressed reached in his pocket, and a smile appeared on the beggar's face.

"I'm afraid," said the man, feeling around among the coins in his pocket, "that I can't give you [the smile on the beggar's face disappeared and a sober look took its place] 2 cents. I think I'll have to give you [the sober look was now turned into a broad smile] 5."

"Boss," said the beggar, "you're a brick."—New York Sun.

TORRENS LAW TESTED

It Will Be Argued Before the
Supreme Court

To Enforce the Statute Required the Expenditure of a Good Many Thousands of Dollars, and the Officials Decided to Give It an Impartial Hearing.

A matter of great interest throughout the entire state and one in which every county in Ohio has a part is the hearing before the supreme court on April 16 as to the constitutionality of the Torrens land law. Attorneys are now preparing their arguments in the matter, and it is to be given an elaborate presentation. The suit grows out of the refusal of the auditor and treasurer of state to purchase the necessary books to put the law in operation. This would have entailed an expense of between $30,000 and $40,000. The attorney general thereupon brought mandamus proceedings to compel them to buy the books and distribute among the counties of the state. The refusal of the auditor and treasurer was not because of any antipathy to the law, but simply a desire to settle the question of constitutionality at the start and do away with the possibility of future litigation. There is much, however, depending upon the outcome, and this is shown by the interest county officials are manifesting. If the law is held to be constitutional it will immediately be put into effect and adopted by the counties. This will greatly simplify the work of land transfers, and do away with the endless confusion attendant upon the present system. If held unconstitutional no change will be made. The best of legal talent has been obtained. R. A. Harrison, and ex-Attorney General Richards will represent the auditor and treasurer. Attorney General Monnett will represent the state. It is proposed to give the matter a fair test before the court.

HE FILED ANSWER

But Failed to Tell Just Why He Left Home.

LISBON, March 29.—[Special.]—Edgar Haviland against whom alimony proceedings were instituted last week by Hannah S. Haviland, his wife of a few weeks, filed his answer to the court. The charge of having deserted her within a short time after marriage is admitted, although it was not without reasons which are well known to both of them. Because of these reasons Haviland took up his residence in Raisin, Lenawee county, Mich., and does not ever again expect to live with her. The children he left with her he made provision for, but the wife has considerable property.

At the time of their marriage she had money he never touched. The property she asks, he disposed of several weeks before she began action, for the purpose of paying debts. He wants the suit dismissed.

GET YOUR TICKETS.

Don't Fail to Secure Reserved Seats at Once.

The college boys will be greeted by an immense audience at the Grand on next Friday night, April 2, as tickets are going like wild fire. Don't delay for a moment if you desire choice seats, which you can now secure at Reed's drug store. The members of the Glee, Mandolin, Guitar and Banjo club are connected with the famous Washington and Jefferson college, of Washington, Pa., and they have won universal commendation whenever and wherever they have appeared. Mr. Valentine Alt bears the reputation of being the finest mandolin player living, while R. J. McDowell, tenor, possesses a wonderfully sweet and highly cultivated voice. The entertainment will be a charming one, and you should not miss it.

Another of the archbishop's stories, also of a coachman, will be new to many. A gentleman living in the neighborhood of Addington, finding that the stablemen were not in the habit of attending church, spoke to his coachman about it. "They ought to go," he said. "That's just what I say myself," was the rejoinder. "I say to them: 'Look at me. I go. And what harm does it do me?'"

An Encomium Cheaply Won.

"Boss," said the man, "give me 2 cents."

The man addressed reached in his pocket, and a smile appeared on the beggar's face.

"I'm afraid," said the man, feeling around among the coins in his pocket, "that I can't give you [the smile on the beggar's face disappeared and a sober look took its place] 2 cents. I think I'll have to give you [the sober look was now turned into a broad smile] 5."

"Boss," said the beggar, "you're a brick."—New York Sun.
